

Admission is open for MSc in Natural Resources Management by research programme 2021

The College of Natural Resources, Royal University of Bhutan would like to open the call for admission to the MSc in Natural Resources Management by research programme for the 2021 session.

Applicants must fulfill the following criteria:

1. Have completed a BSc programme awarded by a recognised University in agriculture, animal science, forestry, environment and life science.
2. Have secured a minimum of 50% in aggregate.

Selection criteria

1. Candidates must submit an outline of proposed research (proposal) maximum of two A4 pages.
2. Candidates must secure minimum of 50% in the written exam to sit for the viva voce.
3. In viva voce, a candidate must secure an average score of 60% for the admission.

Documents required

Along with filled in application form, applicants should submit the following:

1. A copy of Bachelor's degree transcript and certificate from a recognised university
2. A copy of valid CID
3. Security clearance certificate
4. No Objection Certificate from employer (if employed)
5. Audit clearance certificate (if employed)
6. Two copies of recent passport size photograph
7. Photocopy of passport (international student)
8. Scholarship award letter if sponsored by any agency

The above documents should be produced in original at the time of admission exam. The venue for the admission exam will be in the College campus.

Submission of application

Duly filled application form* with research proposal must be submitted online.

Click the following link to apply

Eligible candidates may submit the application form and the proposal latest by 12 July 2022. The shortlisted applicants will be notified on 13 July 2022 through email. Written exam and the viva voce will be conducted on 14-15 July, respectively.

For further information please contact:

Dr. Yeshey Khandu, Program Leader, email: ykhandu.cnr@rub.edu.bt, or call at: +97517805492; copy to dril.cnr@rub.edu.bt, phone: 17768276